

Iron County Register

IRONTON, MO. - APRIL 7, 1910.

E. D. AKE, EDITOR.

VOLUME XLIII. NUMBER 43.

In the city election Tuesday the African contingent carried Kansas City for the g. o. p.

The following relative to the Roosevelt hunting expedition into Africa, taken from the letter of a Chicago Public correspondent, bears the stamp of Christianity and has the ring of civilization. He who kills merely from love of killing is a displacement from the age when murder was merit and the smell of blood grateful to the human nostrils:

I wish to express dissent from the general approval and enthusiasm now being manifested toward Theodore Roosevelt. I believe that this enthusiasm is conclusive evidence of our lack of maturity. Mr. Roosevelt is a man of force and shrewdness, and is a great advertiser. He is the most megaphonic individual since Napoleon Bonaparte. But he is a man who is obsessed with a desire to kill. And, if it were not for public opinion, it wouldn't make much difference to him whether he exercised this savage instinct by slaying Spaniards or lions. He is just now returning from an exhibition that is a disgrace to civilization. And if we were an adult people instead of children, we would condemn him for his inhumanity instead of throwing up our hats to him. The expedition has been a pure exercise of butchery. The fact that it has been carried on in the name of "science" need deceive no one. Men with selfish or evil impulses and who wish at the same time to be popular with their fellows, are never straightforward. Napoleon Bonaparte loved war and bloodshed better perhaps than any other man who ever lived, but when he wanted a war, he never failed to make the French people believe that he and they were being attacked.

Walter L. Hensley.

A few weeks ago we said that Walter L. Hensley of Farmington had definitely determined to make the race for the Democratic nomination for Congress in this district. Since then he has met with such marked encouragement in the several counties he has visited that his friends confidently believe he made no mistake in coming to that conclusion. This week his name appears in our announcement column, and he is in the race to stay until next November, for if he should fall of the nomination—of which his friends have no fear—he will be found fighting on during the rest of the campaign to help elect the man who does secure it.

Mr. Hensley's standing as a lawyer of repute, an active and unswerving Democrat and a man of decided character and ability, is too well established here at home to need proclaiming; but we would like to impress upon those in the other parts of the district who do not know him as well as we do, that he is a man worthy of their support for the honor to which he aspires. He is in the full vigor of physical and mental manhood, in line with the virile, progressive democracy of the age, has an unflinching faith in the fundamental principles of that party, believes that the platform of his party is a pledge of the candidate elected upon such platform, and is ready and able to proclaim its principles or to defend them against the assaults of the opposition. If nominated—and we predict that he will be—he will wake up things in the Thirteenth until it rolls up one of the old-time Democratic majorities next November and is restored to its proper place in the political column.—Farmington Times.

Certainly, the Democrats of this congressional district may congratulate themselves upon the standing, ability and character of the candidates about to solicit their favor in the coming primary. I heartily concur with the Times in all it says in commendation of Mr. Hensley. Should either he or Mr. Robb receive the nomination—there may be other Democratic candidates for Congress before the Primary—full and ardent support will be given the nominee at the succeeding November election. Both are good men, and the REGISTER takes pleasure in bearing attestation to their worth and fitness.

From Goodwater.

Rarely has the month of March been as dry or as warm as was the past month here. Nearly every day was noted for its sunshine and enjoyable temperature. As a natural result vegetation of all kinds sprang up earlier than usual; but the growth of wheat and other cereals, as well as grasses in meadows and pastures, was much retarded by the lack of moisture so essential to rapid and thrifty plant growth.

Nearly all the peach buds were killed by the severe freezes during the past winter. It is feared that most apple trees will fail to bloom for the same reason, and it is quite possible that we shall yet have freezing weather sufficient to utterly destroy nearly all the fruit buds.

The drouth here was broken by a light rain on the morning of the 30th inst., and, judging from present indications, we shall soon have ground-soaking rains.

The following named drummers called on our merchants during the past month: Henry Schultz, representing the Norvell-Shapleigh Hardware Co.; Lee Townsend, H. W. Gildehaus Grocer Co.; A. S. Stevenson, Ryan-Hampton Tobacco Co.

On business came: W. H. Webb, J. M. Matthews, of Bixby; Ed. and Louis Johnson, of near Belgrade; G. W. Marshall and Chas. P. Dameron, of Ironton; Frank Hill, of near Peoria; Grant Midgett, Geo. W. and J. H. Willhite, and Jas. H. Wood of Tolu; A. J. and Noah Mincher, Ol. Brown and W. L. Parks, of Viburnum; Jas. Fortner, Samuel Crocker, Jr., Adam Henderson, John H. and James Stricklin, W. F. Stuart, Chas. Nasser, Philip Bunch, Jos. and Chester Thompson, of near Goodland.

The following named persons visited relatives and friends at the places named during March: Miss Pearl Love, near Belgrade; W. A. Abney and family, near Adam.

On business went: To Dillard: J. M., P. R., C. S. and D. C. Lucas; To Ironton: Wm. Carl and his daughter, Miss Lucy Carl; Miss Ida Dennis; Walter Mayberry; Miss Elsie Payne; To Bixby: Geo. Crocker. To Belgrade: Jos. A. Wigger; Ray B. Carl. To near Middlebrook: Geo. H. W. D., and M. W. Crocker, J. H. Willhite, Ira Carl and W. A. Abney. To Viburnum: L. E. Boulch.

During the past month two cases have been tried by Jas. O. Scott, J. P. On the 19th inst., a replevin case, for a span of mules, was decided by a jury in favor of the plaintiff, A. J. Mincher. W. L. Parks was the defendant. Both parties reside at Viburnum. On the 26th inst., a case for common assault—the state of Missouri vs. Philip Bunch—was gained by the plaintiff. A jury found the defendant guilty as charged, and fined him $25 and costs, a total of $57.40, which he paid. Mrs. Jas. Fortner was the prosecuting witness.

R. C. Crocker and family have moved to the farm he recently purchased near Middlebrook. Jas. H. Crocker bought 40 acres of land adjoining said farm and has moved his household goods and other personal property to his father's premises. R. E.
